

22.

DEUTSCHE PHYSIKERINNENTAGUNG

German Conference of Women in Physics

27. – 30.09.2018 in Oldenburg

“A Singularly Unfeminine Profession: One Woman’s Journey In Physics”
– opening speech by physicist and author Mary K. Gaillard

Events concerning job and career planning and compatibility of family and work

A wide spectrum of interdisciplinary scientific presentations and poster session

Presentations by Gustav Hertz laureate Lavinia Heisenberg and Hertha Spöner laureate Karin Everschor-Sitte

Symposium “Topology in Physics – from Skyrmions to Black Holes”

Guided tours through research facilities

Free childcare

Interactive programme for female high school students

Social programme and city tour

Registration and further information:
www.physikerinnentagung.de

